

17 November 1959

& TV
Radio/Coverage of DCI 13 November Speech:

- MEET THE PRESS - Ned Brooks, the Moderator, used the fact that the DCI had appeared before the Joint Economic Committee to start the program. Congressman Bolling was the guest and the first part of the show was based on questions on what Mr. Dulles had said. (15 November 1959)
- MORGAN BEATTY - passed some remarks about DCI appearance in addition to the news. (13 November 1959)
- JOSEPH MCCAFFREY
Richard HARKNESS - all reported DCI appearance as part of the news of the day.
DOUGLAS EDWARDS (13 November 1959)
- WALTER CRONKITE - had editorial comments on the DCI's appearance. (13 November 1959)
- HOWARD K. SMITH - at the end of his long program he mentioned the fact that the DCI had gone before the Committee and the idea that he had volunteered this information was an index of the urgency of his testimony.
- MARTIN AGRONSKY - at the end of his program commented on some of the things that the DCI had said, and then went on to speak of some things that the DCI did not say. (13 November 1959)